SIGNED UP:

Variant: Acheson(3pd)

Standby: Givan(R), Carter(R), Peters(R&V), Jurkowski(R&V), Acheson(R), Woodson(R&V), Reynolds(R)

Odds and Ends:

- My COA has been delayed until I find another house. I put down a deposit on a new house but I had to kill the deal when the builder could not come up with the promised CHFA (low interest) loan.

- Note that I now have a nine-digit zip code. Maybe it'll help?

- We've had a bit of hot weather lately. I'll include the current chart if I have an open space. The all time record for over 100 days is being seriously threatened.

- There will be some variant rules on page 8.

- If anyone wants more info on MCI Mail or electronic mail in general, just let me know.

- Playlist: Nuclear Furniture/Jefferson Starship, In-A-Gadda-Da-Vida/Iron Butterfly, Tarkus/ELP, Virgin Killer/Scorpions, Journey To The Centre Of The Earth/Rick Wakeman, Sabbath Bloody Sabbath/Black Sabbath, Technical Ecstasy/Black Sabbath.

- USFL Ratings (by Robert Stimmel) before the final game:
ju0

Philidephia 800	Arizona 741	Birmingham 724	Tampa Bay 686
Houston 685	New Jersey 611	Los Angeles 538	Michigan 476

Jacksonville 411	New Orleans 368	Chicago 338	Washington 323

- The International Subscription Exchange has been restarted. This will make it much easier to sub to European zines. For specifics on how to use the service, send a SASE to: Steve Knight, 11905 Winterthur Ln, Apt. 103, Reston, VA 22091

- Recent readings: Coils by Zelazny&Saberhagen (very good), The Diamond
Contessa by Bulmer (very good), & A World Called Solitude by Goldin (excellent)

- For info on Dipcon '85 see the bourse press.

- I've heard Westercon will be in Sacramento in '85.

PRESS:

Austria-Russia: I get very suspicious when you decide to write to Italy.
Austria-Italy: It appears that France does understand how to move into your territorial waters.
Austria-Turkey: It almost worked.
Kaiser Marc-Czar Mikhail: Never mind, I've Givan up on trying to border Evans. Congrats on your comeback. Nah, I've decided to try and get closer to Woody; he's so rolly-polly and snuggely!
Marc the Jerk-Unlucky France: Hey you! Nobody attacks Woody before I do. If you'd just waited a year we could have done it together. Now I regret I have no option but to punish you for jumping the gun.
Marc-Pierre: The East is under control. Head west, young --- ah, what a horrible cliché. You get the idea.
Marc-Evans: You play a mean Turkey, buddy. Sign up in SIL [Marc's new zine So I Lied] and I'll guarantee you the yellow blocks. (With three MadLads as A/I/R, of course!)

Italy-France: Do you understand? Get out of there. There's no place for you.
Italy-Austria: Hmm!
Italy-England: The Pope is interested to meet His Majesty in Buckingham Palace soon or later.
Italy-France: I told you...
Italy-Russia: CZAR MIKHAIL...Yes or No.
Tur-Rus: Wow, this has really been a hoot! How can I ever thank you? In 82AL? Do what? That's crossgaming! The very idea!
Evans-Clark: I know. You told me it wouldn't work. But, I looked so good in that tux.
Madlad Defamation League: Did you hear that on the 4th of July the MadLads were throwing firecrackers at the East Coast Clicque? Then, the clickers would light them and throw them back.

BOURSE PRESS:

True Blue Brew Crew-GM: Find my orders yet? [Never got any last time]

IAPP-Bourse: Overcoming all you financial wizards is a real chore! Any other SuperHeros out there to help ease the burden? The hours are endless, the risks high, and the pay sucks. But oh do the women love it! Cause every girl crazy 'bout a sharp-dressed man!!!

Reynolds-Stimmel: Alas, my Friend! I am now fettered with this Stygian curse. Whether I shall prosper, only the gods know... and they are surely whimsical. Whether Monsieur Peters suffers the same tremors I know not. Oh how tickle the Fates!

GMS-GM: I want you to fold this, put it in your pocket and remember to adjudicate it when the time comes.

GM-GMS: Hard to make out this writing after the washer finishes with it. Let's see...looks like no trading to me...maybe I'll look again later...

SSS-GM: I said it all last time.

SSS-IAPP: Bet it all on Woody!

PPM-C.A. Dreamin': Well now I have a goal: I want to make a million bourse dollars before the game is through. At least then I could say I'm a millionaire. (Now who is dreamin?)

PPM-ALL: Dallas was very nice. 91 players for round one. Many more non-postal players. the rotten thing was that those non-postals were very good. Seattle is the site for '85. Gaughan, Walker, and Tallman are the committee members.

(BTMF): Our recently organized "Bondholder's Committee" has taken over of the bankrupt "Cesspool and Pacific RR". Our first regulation - to promote safety by reducing speed - requires all trains to be run backwards. "When the little red house makes by, the train is not all." (Pa. Dutch)

(BTMF): Our excellent lawyers can help investors, etc. We even won a discrimination suit for a woman who had been denied a high paying position as "Female Impersonator."

Rules for Treachery by Martin Janta-Polczynski (from Diplomacy World #31).

1. This variation of the game of Diplomacy (1971 ed.), which I dedicate to Michel Liesnard, pioneer of Diplomacy in Belgium, has the same rules as the regular game, except that with each season each player may send one "treacherous order", i.e., an order for a unit of another power. This order is followed in lieu of the original order it received (suppose the commanding general has passed over to the enemy). The Gamesmaster does not reveal which are the treacherous orders nor where they came from. In case a unit receives two or more different treacherous orders from other powers, these orders are not followed and the "legal" order remains unaffected.

2. Example: Spring 1901. Instead of the standard stand-off

ENGLAND: F Lon-Eng

FRANCE: F Bre-Eng

we could have

ENGLAND: F Lon S FRENCH F Bre-Eng

FRANCE: F Bre S ENGLISH F Lon-Eng

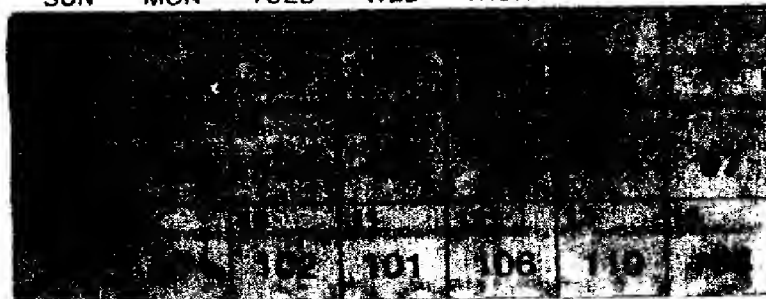

resulting in another "stand-off" since neither supported unit was so ordered.

3. The interesting part of "Treachery" is that you may argue with your good ally that your stab was not in fact a stab, but the treachery of a third party. Or you may cause "over-good" allies to fall out.

Time Distortion Diplomacy by Mark S. Keller

- 1) The rules are the same as in regular Diplomacy with the following exceptions.
- 2) Instead of Spring and Fall, there are  $n$  movement seasons per year.  $n$  is 1 in 01 and follows this progression: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1, 2, ....* The seasons are designated A, B, C, D, & E. There is A01, B01 & B02, etc. The retreat seasons are named a01, b01 & b02, etc. Build seasons are still called Winter.
- 3) Units start in their normal pre-game positions except that the Eng F Edi starts in the NWG and the Ita F Nap starts in the TYH.

-This sequence could be changed to produce different versions of this variant.
